

Community Dialogue

Mon, 5 Sep 2022

Building Bonds of Trust – Strategies, Narratives & Interventions

In an increasingly complex and diverse social landscape, how can we be inclusive and build bridges between different communities? What outcomes should we be looking at? How can we inspire change for the better?

This Community Dialogue will explore key constructs, impact models and ground-up approaches, as well as share experiences in fostering social cohesion.

Venue: Wisma Geylang Serai, 1 Engku Aman Turn, Singapore 408528
Shuttle bus service will be provided to and from Raffles City Convention Centre

Time	Activity
From 5.30pm	Shuttle bus from Raffles City Convention Centre to Wisma Geylang Serai (buses depart 5.30pm, 5.45pm and 6.00pm)
6:30 – 7:30pm	Registration and dinner (provided)
7:30 – 9:30pm	Panel discussion
From 9.45pm	Shuttle bus from Wisma Geylang Serai to Raffles City Convention Centre (buses depart 9.45pm, 10.00pm and 10.15pm)

Guest Speakers

Dr Julian Hargreaves
Director of Research at The Woolf Institute

He holds an MRes (Distinction) in Criminology and a PhD in Applied Social Science, both from Lancaster University. His research interests include ethnic and religious minority communities; diversity, integration and cohesion; Islamophobia and Antisemitism; counter-extremism and counterterrorism; social research methods; and policy-related research. As part of his work at the Woolf Institute, he teaches on the MPhil in Middle Eastern and Asian Studies (Pathway A: Muslim-Jewish Relations), University of Cambridge. He is an Affiliated Lecturer at the Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies, a Research Associate at St. Edmund's College, Cambridge and a Visiting Fellow at the Centre of Islamic Studies. At the Woolf Institute, Julian has led the research and analysis on various projects including the Diversity Study of England and Wales 2020 (the UK's largest known study of diversity).

Ms See Guat Kwee
Author, interfaith bridgebuilder and facilitator

She holds a Master of Arts in Islamic Studies and Christian-Muslim Relations from Hartford International University of Religion and Peace, CT USA (previously Hartford Seminary). Her book, Christian-Muslim Relations in Singapore from Independence to Post 9/11 was published in 2019. She was founding Chairperson for the Centre for Interfaith Understanding, Singapore (2020-2022) and is currently its Board Member. She has been creating safe spaces for conversation for more than a decade using the circle process.

Moderator
Dr Mathew Mathews
Principal Research Fellow and the Head of the Social Lab at the Institute of Policy Studies, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, National University of Singapore

He has been involved in over 50 research projects examining social policy issues including race, religion, immigrant relations, family and poverty. Together with his colleagues, he recently released a report on the second wave of the CNA-IPS survey on race relations. He also led the IPS-OnePeople.sg Indicators of Racial and Religious Harmony study and other studies examining inclusion issues. Dr Mathew is on the boards of OnePeople.sg and the National Volunteer and Philanthropy Centre, and Families for Life Council.

Organised by:

In conjunction with:

